

THE BULLETIN—VOL 44, NUMBER 48, December 23, 2018

SERMONS THIS SUNDAY:

AM: Ed Kelleher

PM: Ed Kelleher

A Warm Welcome awaits you at all our services. Come see!

WHY SHOULD WE?

“What shall we then say to these things?

If God be for us, who can be against us?

He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all,
how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?” - Romans 8:31,32

Examine yourself! Are you in the faith, or not? (2 Cor 13:5)

West Columbia Church of Christ
1701 Augusta Road
West Columbia SC 29169
www.WestColumbiaChurchOfChrist.org

JOIN US IN PRACTICING
NEW TESTAMENT
CHRISTIANITY
TODAY,
COME SEE!

SERVICES

Sunday 10 AM Bible Study
Sunday 11 AM , 6 PM Assembly
Wednesday 7 PM Bible Study
Office Phone (803) 794-5320
Nursery provided

INFORMAL BIBLE STUDY

On Request
Everyone Welcome!
Bring your friends & Bible questions

EVANGELIST

Other than the members
none at present time
Full time position open

BULLETIN EDITOR

Ed Kelleher
Office Phone (803) 796-8858
E-Mail: Ed@macro-inc.com

WEST COLUMBIA CHURCH OF CHRIST

“every disciple that is perfect shall be as his master.” Luke 6:40b

GIVE IT UP!

We all have desires and things we want. Some are good, some not so good. We choose the ones that are most important to us. Hopefully, we're all wanting to be with our Lord some day. This is a good desire! The Lord told us to "Covet earnestly the best gifts" - 1 Cor 12:31.

When we have something we really want—we work to get it. The more important it is to us, the harder we work. As we work though, we should also think about how we can work more effectively. We don't want to take two steps forward and then one step backward! We want to make every step count. The Lord gave us some advice on this: "lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us," - Hebrews 12:1

The Lord tells us to get rid of or give up the weights we carry with us, the things that slow us down, that tire us, that keep us from going as fast and as far as we should. These are the cares and riches of this world. He told us not to worry about these, to instead care for spiritual treasure, things like: patience, mercy, forgiveness, justice and kindness. On Judgment day, don't you want the Lord to extend those things to you? Well, He wants us to have these spiritual qualities also. Which leads into another area of giving it up.

We know we ought to give up the bad things, the weights that hinder us, but what about the good things we have? I.e., In the sense of sowing; we need to give up our good things also—we need to share them with others. But, in order to sow, you have to have seed to sow. If the farmer ate all of his corn, he wouldn't have any left to plant. We must work to build up these good things in ourselves, that we'll have some to share with others. The Lord wants us to give to others, the good things (SPIRITUAL, see list above) we have, so we'll have even more!

"But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully" - 2 Corinthians 9:6

Sure, give up the bad things like selfishness, harshness and envy, —but let's also give to others, the good things the Lord has given to us: patience, mercy, gentleness, etc. Do that, and we'll find ourselves much closer to that thing we desire and really need:

"Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. " - James 4:8

- Ed Kelleher, West Columbia church of Christ, South Carolina

“PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER” - James 5:16

REMEMBER IN PRAYER: Merrie Christmus, Dorothy Gray & family, Margaret Herring, Pat Joyner, Jan Kelleher, Gwen Pittman, Stephanie Rigney.

- Stephanie’s aunt has been diagnosed with breast cancer.
- Paula Kennedy continues to have great difficulty with shingles and much pain. Pat continues to have spells of great dizziness and pain also.
- Also remember in prayer: Connie, Amy Strickland; Lauren’s niece, 3, with a brittle teeth condition, and Lauren also.

"But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.

My times are in thy hand;" - Psalm 31:14

- Pray also that we all grow in faith, hope, love, humility, zeal, mercy, knowledge.
- Remember our search for an evangelist to help us with the work of the Lord here at West Columbia. Give thanks to God for his goodness and love for us.

"Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you." - 1 Corinthians 11:2

“AND THEY CONTINUED STEADFASTLY” - Acts 2:42

- ALL! INVITE SOMEONE TO VISIT US! Give them one of the church cards that are on the table in the foyer. If you take some, be faithful to use them.

“Who will render to every man according to his deeds: To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory, honor and immortality, eternal life:” - Rom 2:6,7

A LEAVING, A LIVING AND A LOOKING—(continued from page 3)

A companion passage that emphasizes the importance of living and looking is found in 2 Pet. 3:10-14. In view of the fact that this world and all that is in it will someday perish in fire, Peter asked the question, "Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God?"... "Wherefore, beloved, seeing that we look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless."

Therefore, righteous living must precede confident looking. Are you looking forward to the second coming? Can you, with Paul, say "Oh Lord, Come" (1 Cor. 16:22).

CONCLUSION The grace of God that brings salvation brings a host of blessings. But it also brings responsibility. We must never forget that the grace of God obligates us to leave, to live, and to look. Let us be diligent in making certain that we have met the demands of leaving and living so that we might confidently be looking for the second coming of Christ.

— by B. J. Clarke, minister, Southhaven church of Christ, Southhaven, Mississippi

A LEAVING, A LIVING AND A LOOKING

The blessings of God's grace are overwhelming. It is through the grace of God that salvation and redemption is made available for all men. Our Lord tasted death for every man (Heb. 2:9). It is his will that all men come to a knowledge of the truth (1 Tim. 2:4) and he is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance (2 Pet. 3:9). We've often correctly defined grace as "God's unmerited favor." It is getting something that we do not deserve (Eph. 2:8-9; Rom. 5:6-8).

There is no doubt that the grace of God blesses, but equally so, the passage of scripture in Titus 2:11-14 demonstrates that the grace of God also obligates. It requires and teaches certain responsibilities for all who would enjoy its favor. The meaning of Titus 2:11-14 can be summed up with three main points, all beginning with the letter "L."

I. A LEAVING First of all, the grace of God demands that we leave behind certain practices of the past and begin walking in the righteousness of God. We must leave behind ungodliness, worldly lust, and works of the flesh (Titus 2:12; Gal. 5:19-21). After we have become recipients of the benefits of God's grace, it is the cross before me, the world behind me, no turning back (Luke 9:62; Luke 17:32). We must remember to leave the "old man" behind in the watery grave where he was buried (Romans 6:4ff). Those who come to God must remember to love not the world neither the things that are in the world (1 John 2:15). We must leave behind fleshly lusts which war against the soul (1 Peter 2:11). Thus, first of all, the grace of God that brings salvation also brings the responsibility to leave ungodliness behind.

II. A LIVING The grace of God not only demands that we leave ungodliness but that we live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world (Titus 2:12). It is not sufficient merely to eliminate evil from our lives; we must replace the evil with good.

Jesus told the story of the unclean spirit gone out of a man, walking through dry places, seeking rest and finding none. The unclean spirit then decided to return to his former residence. When he arrived, he found it empty, swept, and garnished. Thus finding the vacancy, he went and took with him seven spirits more wicked than himself and they entered in and dwelled there again. Jesus said that the last state of this man was worse than the first (Matt. 12:43-45).

The obvious point of this declaration by our Lord is that it is not sufficient to merely eliminate evil from our lives. We must replace that evil with good. We must "put on" as well as "put off" (Col. 3:10,12; Eph. 4:24; 2 Pet. 1:5-11). We must be different or peculiar from the world not only in what we don't do, but also in the things that we are doing. We must be sure to give attention to the "thou shalt" of the gospel as well as the "thou shalt not" (James 4:17; Matt.25:31-46; Luke 16:19-31; Rev. 3:14-19). Jesus is certainly the best example of what it means to live soberly, righteously, and godly. He kept Himself pure and went about doing good (1 Pet. 2:21; Acts 10:38).

III. A LOOKING Not only must we leave behind ungodliness and worldly lust, and live soberly, righteously, and godly, but furthermore, we ought also to look for that blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior (Titus 2:13). This passage is a reference to the second coming of Christ. (continued on page 2)