Four Thieves of the Crucifixion

1. The thief who regretted (John 12:6). Oh the advantages Judas had! He had been selected by Jesus to be an apostle, was entrusted by his peers with the position of treasurer, and observed many of the Lord’s miracles (Matthew 11:5). It was this Judas who betrayed the Lord for money. His betrayal turned to regret (Matthew 27:3), but rather than look forward to forgiveness, he only looked back and hanged himself. True repentance means more than feeling sorry for a wrong. It is the desire to change and do better (2 Corinthians 7:10).

2. The thief who was replaced. It was customary to release a prisoner at the Passover. Thus Pilate offered the crowd either Jesus or Barabbas. They requested the notorious murderer and robber released rather than Jesus (Matthew 27:15–16). Barabbas had someone else (Jesus) take his punishment for him. Barabbas could say that Jesus died in his place. Of course, we can say it, too! (2 Corinthians 5:20–21).

3. The thief who rebelled. At first both thieves crucified with Christ spoke against Him (Matthew 27:41–44), but only one kept on doing it (Luke 23:39). This thief remained impenitent because he forgot God, ignored death at hand, and justly deserved what he was receiving (Luke 23:40–41). This man died in a state of rebellion in spite of the rebuke and repentance of the other thief and a Savior close at hand.

4. The thief who repented. This thief had a change of heart (Luke 23:40–43). In his agony he looked to the Savior and admitted his sinfulness and Jesus’ innocence (Luke 23:41–42). His repentance did not bring escape from death but did bring relief and fellowship with Jesus in the next life (Luke 23:43). He did what the Lord asked him to do, and in that sense he is an example to us.

All of us are represented by one of these thieves. Have you let Jesus down? Have you allowed Jesus to take your place? Are you rebellious? Have you repented? Which are you?

"Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." - Matthew 7:12-14

“ELDERS ... FEED THE FLOCK OF GOD” - 1 Peter 5:1,2

"And I, brethren, when I came to you, did not come with excellency of speech or of wisdom declaring to you the testimony of God. For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God." - 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

In this passage, God (through Paul) is telling us two very important things:

First, there are two kinds of wisdom: Man's and God's. And there is just no comparison between the two. (Isaiah 55:8,9; Prov. 3:5-8). We must remember, however, HUMAN WISDOM does produce results (but not the type we want). It gets results because it is based on man's understanding of man. But, who are we out to please? And, if we say it's God, can we please God by using MAN's wisdom?

“But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him” - Heb 11:6

Second, faith can be built on man's wisdom. We can use the wisdom of the world to teach men about God and Christ. We can even give men faith using the wisdom of men. However, is this kind of faith acceptable with God?

“This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.” - Matthew 15:8,9

As we serve God and teach others about Him, we must be careful to do it HIS way, to speak "as the oracles of God." We must use God's word and the ability He has given us, in order to glorify God and not ourselves.

“If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever.” - 1 Peter 4:11

We must decide whether we will serve God His way or our way. And if we don't do it His way, who are we really serving? We may kid ourselves, but God won't be fooled.

“Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.” - Galatians 6:7
